BUYING GUIDE

96 Hanzell 2004 Chardonnay (Sonoma Valley); $65. Massive, complex, with amazing depth, an opulent, voluptuous wine of tremendous power and authority. It's so beautiful now, you almost hesitate to cellar it, but these Hanzell Chards are built for the long haul. Positively volcanic in tropical fruit and toasty new oak, with a honeyed, caramel finish. Absolutely stunning. Editors' Choice.
