

Wine Spectator

May 2007

92 | Hanzell

2004 Sonoma Valley Chardonnay

Shows terrific aromas, serving up a beam of citrus infused pear, apple and melon fruit, enlivened by firm acidity. The finish sails on revealing a tight band of fruit. Very impressive. This is a wine with a track record for ageing. Drink now through 2013.

www.hanzell.com
707.996.3860